

Goods in Transit

If your business delivers or moves goods, then you will need goods in transit insurance. Our insurance covers your goods from theft, loss or damage whilst they are being transported by a vehicle from one place to another.

We will work with you to understand the type of goods you are transporting and will create tailor-made policies to ensure you have the cover that is right for you and your business. We have particular expertise in providing cover for the transit of hazardous materials.
