

Property Owners' Combined

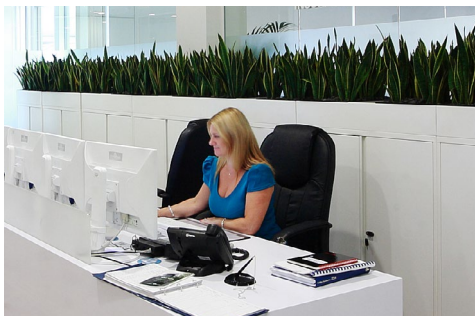

Whether you own a single residential or commercial property, or have a portfolio with multiple locations, our property owners' combined insurance policy can help protect you across a range of risks and exposures.

At Miles Smith we don't just sell insurance and leave you to it. We work, hand-in-hand with you, to understand all your risks before creating a policy that's right for you. Our property owners' combined insurance is an excellent example of this. We take the time to understand the risks you face before creating a policy that covers you for buildings, contents, loss of rent, employers' liability, public liability personal accident and more. We can also cover unoccupied and overseas property as well.
