

Terrorism

Terrorism is now a very real and meaningful threat to many businesses. Attacks by small groups or lone wolves are becoming more frequent, exposing businesses to far greater risk than in the past. Terrorism Insurance can help protect your business and its ability to continue to trade.

Terrorism can have a number of effects, not just the immediate physical damage. There's lost revenue, and this won't be covered by standard business interruption policies. Supply chain disruption is another common consequence, with terrorist incidents easily able to impact businesses miles away from the actual act. Our terrorism cover will look at the most common terror threats to your business and also consider the threats posed by risks in your local area.

What's typically covered?

- ✓ Damage to or destruction of your property
- ✓ Equipment and other contents
- ✓ Financial losses associated with the interruption of your business
- ✓ The cost of renting space to continue to trade
- ✓ Loss of revenue
